CIVIL ACTION NO.
1:09-CV-2235-TWT

CONSENT MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS

Come now, Plaintiff and Defendant and jointly move this Court for a stay of proceedings. After conference with counsel the Parties jointly move to stay this case including all responsive pleadings and discovery holding it in complete abeyance for six months or sooner should either party move that the stay be lifted. This time period is necessary as legislative action may be required and the Georgia Assembly does not reconvene until the end of January.

The parties seek this stay as they are optimistic that the case may be resolvable short of litigation. Should the parties be able to pursue an alternate resolution, the stay will preserve litigation expense, tax payer dollars and court resources.

Respectfully submitted this 19th of August, 2009.
